

Bachelor of Arts in History (120 hours)

A Bachelor of Arts in History provides students with the intellectual discipline as well as the research, analytical, and communication skills that will prepare them for careers in teaching, government, non-profit organizations, and the private sector. The history degree program also serves as a useful foundation for professional degrees in law, history, library studies, public history, or other disciplines in social sciences and humanities. Courses with asterisks (*) indicate Common Core courses.
